U.S. Rep. Brad Miller's Statement on Supreme Court's Affordable Care Act Ruling

The status quo in America has been paying twice as much for health care as other developed countries, and Americans aren't as healthy and don't live as long. Something had to give. Now we need to make the reform work.

Health reform was already making a difference for the people of North Carolina: <http://www.healthcare.gov/law/resources/nc.html>
